

BIBLIOGRAPHIA HOPKINSIENSIS

1876-1891

PART I PHILOLOGY

ISSUED BY THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY
BALTIMORE
1892

EDITORIAL NOTE.

The following bibliography is intended to include the important publications of present and former members of the Academic Staff during the period of their connection with the University; also a full bibliography of present and former Fellows and Graduates; a few important papers by other members of the University, not included in the classes above named, are also enumerated.

For convenient reference, the titles of some papers published by former members of the Academic Staff and former Fellows by Courtesy, after their connection with the University had ceased, are added.

Papers not of a philological character are occasionally enumerated, for completeness of statement, where the principal scientific work of the individual has been philological.

These pages have been prepared under the editorial supervision of Professor Bloomfield.
